

THE RITZ-CARLTON YACHT COLLECTION ANNOUNCES 2023 MEDITERRANEAN ITINERARIES

With new destinations in the Canary Islands, Cape Verde and more, the voyages are poised to become among the most coveted journeys on the highly-anticipated yacht

BETHESDA - May 26th, 2021 – The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection is delighted to announce its 2023 Mediterranean itineraries. From the bustling and eccentric coastal city of Casablanca to the picturesque seaports of Sicily, the newly released itineraries aboard Evrima, the first yacht from The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection, offer guests the opportunity to reconnect with the beauty of the Mediterranean and beyond all while experiencing the culture, tastes, sights and natural wonders of the region.

“We are excited to introduce our 2023 Mediterranean itineraries,” commented Douglas Prothero, Chief Executive Officer for The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection. “We continue to see incredible interest in exploring these highly sought after destinations and are thrilled to be able to offer an extended season with more opportunities for our guests to immerse themselves in the unique, vibrant cultures of the Mediterranean.”

The 2023 Mediterranean season spans from April through November, stopping at five new ports along the way, including Melilla, Spain; La Gomera, Canary Islands, Spain; Praia, Cape Verde; Mindelo, Cape Verde; and Catania, Sicily, Italy. The voyages offer an extended Mediterranean season, building upon the coveted destinations featured in the 2022 itineraries, such as the Greek Isles, French Riviera, Balearic Islands and Adriatic Coast. Designed with a yachting lifestyle in mind, the relaxed pace of Evrima's itineraries promises more flexibility for guests' time on land, with overnight calls in Casablanca, Saint-Tropez, Dubrovnik and more. Global travelers are invited to explore the famed nightlife scene of Ibiza or explore the casinos of Monte Carlo, swim in the enticing Comino's Blue Lagoon of Malta or take in the vibrant colors of the Amalfi Coast. Whether guests are looking for adventure, enrichment or supreme relaxation, the newly released 2023 Mediterranean itineraries offer endless opportunities for an unforgettable escape.

The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection brings the legendary Ritz-Carlton service to sea with an all-inclusive luxury cruising experience leading guests to ports at some of the world's most sought-after destinations. On board the yacht, guests will enjoy a range of programming including a thoughtfully curated menu of ESPA spa treatments, watersports from the yacht's marina and Evrima's signature restaurant, S.E.A., designed by Chef Sven Elverfeld of Aqua, the three Michelin-starred restaurant at The Ritz-Carlton, Wolfsburg. In each destination, guests can choose from a selection of unique experiences within The Shore Collection that align with their interests or utilize the services of the Concierge Ashore to customize their own private tours.
