

THE RITZ-CARLTON YACHT COLLECTION ANNOUNCES NEW 2024 MEDITERRANEAN ITINERARIES

With new ports in Italy, Croatia, Greece, Cape Verde and more, these voyages celebrate the vibrant culture and natural beauty of the region

Fort Lauderdale, FL – Thursday, July 14, 2022 – The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection today announced the 2024 Mediterranean itineraries for its inaugural yacht, Evrima, are now open for reservations. Introducing 21 new voyages, the extended Mediterranean season spans from April through November 2024, offering travelers the space and freedom to enjoy a variety of destinations.

“We are excited to unveil our 2024 Mediterranean season of itineraries,” commented Douglas Prothero, Chief Executive Officer for The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection. “Our Mediterranean voyages continue to be especially popular, and we are pleased to expand on Evrima’s time in the region, promising more opportunities for our guests to enjoy some of the world’s most sought-after yachting destinations.”

The new season features voyages to quintessential Mediterranean destinations, including calls on the Greek Isles, Balearic Islands, and French Riviera. The itineraries will include 14 new ports, such as Seville, Spain; Sardinia, Italy; Syros, Greece; Trogir, Croatia, and more, as well as overnights in Casablanca, Morocco; Monte Carlo, Monaco; Dubrovnik, Croatia; and Portofino, Italy, among other coveted destinations. Most voyages range from seven to 11 nights. Throughout the journey, guests enjoy intimate, yacht-style itineraries and a relaxed sailing pace, ensuring travelers have the opportunity to delve deep into the vibrant cultures, local cuisines and natural beauty of the region.

In each destination, guests can choose from a selection of exclusive experiences within The Shore Collection that align with their interests or utilize the services of the Concierge Ashore to customize their own private tours. Whether it's exploring the legendary beach scene of Mykonos by boat, learning the art of limoncello production in Sorrento, or touring the stunning architecture and gardens of the Alhambra in Granada, there is truly something for every traveler to enjoy. By working with local guides selected for their insider knowledge, guests enjoy a highly personalized and immersive journey while exploring the culture of each destination.

For a limited time, a selection of additional opportunities is exclusively available for private charters. Multiple voyages, calling on sought-after destinations in Italy, France, and Monaco during the 2024 Grand Prix, can be fully customized to offer personalized itineraries, including time spent at each destination with tailored excursions and special events ashore.

The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection brings the legendary service of The Ritz-Carlton to sea with an all-inclusive luxury yachting experience leading guests to some of the world's most beloved destinations. On board Evrima, the first of three custom-built yachts from The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection, guests will enjoy a range of programming including a thoughtfully curated menu of spa treatments, watersports from the yacht's marina, and Evrima's signature restaurant, S.E.A., designed by Chef Sven Elverfeld of Aqua, the three Michelin-starred restaurant at The Ritz-Carlton, Wolfsburg.
